

Real God:

Father, thank you for the grace of another beautiful day; for the richness of colour and the freshness the rain gives us. Thank you for the grace of your unfailing love that permeates our world and for your redemption that overflows and redeems us from every kind of sin.

St. Aidan's:

Regarding our next Rector, Father. I ask for patience for all of us as we wait, strengthen us to continue in prayer not only at our corporate prayer, but during our day and if we wake at night. Grace us to allow you to transform us and our next rector, so we will all know what your good, pleasing & perfect will is.

Real Lives:

In our greater world it looks pretty horrifying some days and we long for your return. For the victims of hurricane Beryl: we ask for peace and provision for them. We pray for the mighty intervention of your power for the war in Ukraine - we condemn the unconscionable act of bombing a hospital with children, babies & mothers. Thank you for all your churches there who work in the rubble and help out victims. For the ministry of Caleb Suko who is sharing your love with Ukrainian military personnel and encouraging churches.

Missions:

We pray for Sharyn and her continued ministry with Wycliffe Bible Translation. Please give her wisdom as she discerns which projects to support. We thank you for the spiritual gifts that you have given her and the place where you have placed her. We pray for strength and good health, especially in terms of her osteoarthritis.

We pray for those in hospital, PCHs and home-bound, and for those we are blessed to have with us and who, nonetheless, are in need of our prayers.

We remember Barbara, Bill, Carol, David, Elizabeth, Harold, Joy, Margaret, Pam, Pearl, Sue, Ruth, Deborah and Brent, Laird and Pastor Indy.

We lift up to you all those on our prayer chain and those caring for them. You have the power to heal our bodies, minds and spirits, Father, and we call on you to do so, in your perfect will and your perfect time.

We remember and give thanks for all recently departed in Christ and those whose anniversaries of death occur at this time. Lord, grant all who have lost loved ones, your comfort and your peace as they celebrate lives lived by faith in You.

We offer these prayers, with confidence, trusting that you hear our requests and grant them in your wisdom and mercy, knowing what is best for us.

Lord in your mercy.
