This season we rejoice in the salvation of the world. Christ is risen, let us arise in him! Christ enters new life, let us live in him! Christ has come forth from the tomb; let us shake off the fetters of evil! In Christ a new creation is coming to birth, Alleluia! Lord make us new, Alleluia!

Real Lives

We pray for our tattered world: especially in the Middle East and the Ukraine. We pray for the peace which passes all understanding. We pray for our tattered city where poverty and homelessness shatter the lives of the less fortunate. Be a shining beacon through our Feed My Sheep activity this afternoon. We pray for our neighbourhoods where if we listened to Jesus's words to love our neighbour as ourselves, there would be no theft or vandalism.

St Aidans We pray for the unity of our thoughts and actions in our church home. Lord bless the participants of Discipleship Explored that it may be a rich time of learning and sharing. We also pray for our youth, that you protect them from the pull of the world and nurture them to continue to follow you. Lord please be with our Wednesday and Thursday prayer groups as they assemble to pray into the process of finding our new rector. Lord, your will be done.

Missions - We pray for all the teachers, administrators, and board members of the St Aidan's Christian School. May the Lord continue to equip, encourage, and protect them all. We ask that the Lord will reveal himself to all the students, and minister in and through them daily. Pray that our three grade 12 students will attend school, and get their work done so they can graduate!! Pray for a successful and meaningful fundraiser on the 29th.

We lift up those in personal care homes, hospital or homebound – Barbara, Bill, Carol, Cath, David and Kathy, Deb, Elizabeth, Harold, Joy, Madeline, Margaret, Pam, Pearl, Ruth, Sue

We thank You for the lives of those who have loved You and now rest with You. We remember to you Doug MacEwan, Jamie's father, and the family as they mourn his passing.

Thank you, mighty Lord God, for hearing these petitions.

Lord, in Your mercy,

Hear our prayers.
